EDUCATION

City College – Davis Center of Performing Arts

The concepts of music composition and arranging music were the tools developed which enabled me to create music I aspired to compose during this course of study. My foundation along with my passion for music comes from one of my mentors, the great Professor John Lewis of The Modern Jazz Quartet who taught me the art of improvisation.

Jazz Mobile

During my study at Jazz Mobile, the concepts of the various styles of Jazz guitar were mentored to a class of other great guitarists along with myself, by the great Wally Richardson.
